

Getting to know you: If you could either go back in time (once) or go forward in time which would you choose?

Quick Review: Looking back at your notes from this week's teaching, was there anything that caught your attention or challenged you?

Forgive Us

MY STORY:

1. Based on this portion of Scripture, what is God's attitude to our debts to Him?
2. Do you identify with Peter's questions about the limits of forgiveness in Matthew 18:21-22?
3. Is confession a part of your daily prayers?
4. Why do we need to ask God for forgiveness on a regular basis?

DIGGING DEEPER

1. What things do you find hard to forgive?
 - a. Are there things in which you haven't forgiven?
 - b. Are there things in which you haven't asked God to forgive you of?
 - c. Are there things you are trying to hide from God?
2. Pastor Tom stated "If I'm not walking in forgiveness, I limit God's ability to forgive me. How can you work at forgiving those who have wronged you?"

3. The saying “I’ll forgive, but I can’t forget.” Can’t be a saying for a follower of Jesus. When God forgives, He forgets. Though this may be humanly impossible, what do you need to forget or work on forgetting so that you can let go?

TAKING IT HOME

1. Read 1 Peter 4:8. How can you work on loving others more?
